

I am Dropping the Followers Project

I decided to drop the Followers project that I started a few weeks ago after seeing that the Basic Box program hits virtually every day. I am focusing all my attention on this program right now.

Now let me share a simple strategy to use with the playlist to cut it down a bit.

Here it is: Just focus on lines 2 through 5, which reduces the list down to 60 numbers.

In the example below for October 8 for New York, I would just look at the 60 numbers highlighted in yellow below. NOTE: 724 hit on the very next drawing on midday Oct 9.
