(This is just ONE way of tracking these 85 numbers.)

This program puts out the winning number over and over again with incredible consistency. I am really impressed with it.

And right now I am working on a betting system to go along with it because that is all this program needs; a betting system – because the winning number is (almost) always there.

I sent out a basic betting system a few days ago (if you are a paid member, you should have gotten it) but I am working on something even better.

And for those of you who have emailed me with questions regarding followers, the Reference Box, pairs, etc, my response is: FORGET IT.

For now, forget about every other system and program I have on pick3programs.com

Just focus on this program because the winning number is almost always on that list of 85 numbers!

So I am putting everything else on the back burner for now and I am putting all my attention on this program – it's a winner!
