

621 just hit NY

I am still holding onto the digit in the first position, so it might hit tonight.

But now that I think about it...a better strategy could have been playing all 52 numbers since the 348 that hit last night was an outside number (a number on the outside border)...meaning that an inside number (52) would hit next.

Good for Tuesday Dec 30

843 hit Evening

That is exactly what happened: 126 is an inside number.

621 hit Midday

I will hold onto the digit in the first position until it hits.

Note: If you play all 36 numbers for any particular digit, you do NOT have to double up after a midday loss.

Actually, you can play all 36 numbers for 2 days (4 drawings) without having to double up to show a profit...assuming you play at 5dimes.com because they pay $150 for a $1 box bet.

36 x 4 drawings = $144
