

The Power 10 Program Revisited

Program Instructions:

This system is based on the 40 Power Numbers. These 40 numbers tend to hit over and over again. Therefore, the 10 most due numbers from this list are “hot.” One of these 10 due numbers will hit soon. You can find the 10 most due Power Numbers by hand simply by removing numbers one by one. Start with the list of 40 numbers and start removing every Power Number you see starting from the most recent hit in your state. Remove every Power Number one by one until you only have 10 left. You will have to go back 4 to 5 months to remove the most recent 30 hits from this list. That will take some time (and human error is always a possibility.) The other option is to use this program. To be on the safe side, enter the results of the last 5 months, which should be around 300 drawings (assuming 2 drawings per day = 60 a month x 5 months = 300 drawings). Enter the most recent number and work your way back. What you will find is that one of the Power 10 numbers will hit soon after. To get clues on exactly which number will hit next, see which of the 10 numbers show up on the other programs; DTD, Due Pairs Play List, Code-3, Key 80 System, the Rundown List, etc. Cross referencing these lists with the Power 10 list on the Group Matching System program is an excellent strategy. Get a new list after one or two numbers from the list have hit. You want to avoid having to input each number one by one into this program. Therefore, I suggest keeping the results of your state on a Word document. Update it every night with the days results. Just copy and paste your list to the top input box of this program every time you want a new Power 10 list.

Enter the last 300 numbers that hit your state.

The most recent 30 Power Numbers will be removed.

The remaining 10 numbers make up the Power 10 list

The Program gave me this output:

Power 10

The 10 most due Power Numbers:

029 056 057 058 127 157 235 236 258 267

Result: 850 hit the next day on April 24.

I think I will pay more attention to this program from now on.
