

392 Just Hit New York

Predicted By My Brand New Follower System

It is now Sunday night, July 5, 2015 and 392 just hit New York. I actually had this number down on my notes. More specifically I was expecting a number from LINE 4 to hit FROM the LAST TWO NUMBERS THAT HIT NEW YORK: 119 and 699 (box form). As you can see below, 239 is in both list of followers.

119 Followers

And there is more.

239 was also predicted by the Super Six program.

There is even more to this. For example, I have divided the 60 followers into very specific groups and 239 was in one of these groups. I will explain all this in my next book (due out in in about two weeks.)

Why am I bringing this up?

Because I am developing a system that is based on my list of followers (which hit in EVERY state) and you will need to have the list to use my system.

Right now the list is $60.

There is a good chance it will go up to $99 after my book is out.

STRATEGY: The list of followers are good for the next TWO drawings. So don't limit yourself by just looking at the next drawing – look at the next 2 drawings. And cross reference the numbers with the Super Six numbers.
