

237 in New York

I want to say two things.

First, I put out MANY systems and strategies and it can all be very confusing. However, what you have to do is take in all I say and then see what works for you and keep that. Disregard that which does not work for you.

Second, you also want to put all the pieces together and pay attention when different systems point to the same number. For example, 645 and 621 hit New York today and when I enter the last 100 numbers for New York into the 4 Due Pairs programs, I see that pair 37 is now one of the 4 most due pairs in New York (always enter numbers starting from the most recent and going back: evening, midday, evening, midday, etc. I do NOT separate midday and evening drawings in my programs or systems).

Because the most due group now in NY is Group 8 and the short list for Group 8 has the number 237.
